Our guest speaker, Andrew Arboe is an active autism advocate in Connecticut. Andrew has an associate degree from Manchester Community College for their Disability Specialist program. He is a job coach for Plainville Community Schools, Event Facilitator for Planning Across the Spectrum and Clinician for Autism Families CT. He is inspired to help change the lives for all on whatever side of the spectrum and their families. He is also responsible for creating Planning Across the Spectrum's free calendar, which is filled with ongoing autism events all over the state.

This is a great meeting for adults or transitioning teens to attend.

This presentation is no cost to families. All are welcome to attend.

To register contact Heather Graveline at hgraveline@ctfsn.org or 860-546-9289. Please provide name, town, age of adult/child, how many attending. Space is limited.
